ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

NEGRO MURRAY SEATED IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

General Walker's Aid in Bringing About the Discreditable Result. The rainy day of yesterday brings Richmond Locomotive - Works Claim-Washington Small Talk,

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4 .- (Special.)-The Republicans perpetrated another outrage to-day in the seating of the negro Murray, from the First South Carolina District, and they were ably have been a molehill of saving will aided in the discreditable work by General James A. Walker, of Virginia. Representative Jones, of Virginia, in presenting the report favoring Elliott, the contestee, showed conclusively that the over a part share of its previous aclatter had been fairly elected, and that cumulated profit. the negro did not have the slightest shadow of a legal title to the seat. Representative McCall (Republican), of Massachusetts, chairman of Elections Committee No. 3, and Representative Jonkins (Republican), of Wisconsin, another member of the committee, refused to sign the report in favor of the negro. Murray; but General James A. Walker did sign it. The two former also refused to vote for the negro on the floor of the House when the final vote was taken, but General James A. Walker, who represents the white Ninth District of Virginia, did vote for the negro, and, as a reward for his radical Republican zeal he was loudly applauded by near-ly all the Republicans on the floor. WALKER'S INCONSISTENCY.

General Walker's course in this case is absolutely inconsistent with his previous action in the contested-election case of Johnson (Republican) against Stokes (Democrat), also from South Carolina. In this case he held that the election law of South Carolina was unconstitutional, and he voted for a resolution declaring the seat vacant on that ground. To-day, however, he voted under the same law to seat a negro, whom Judge McCall and Representative Jenkins, two able Republican lawyers on his committee, admitted had no claim whatever to the place, and was not elected.

The negro was escorted to the bar of

The negro was escorted to the bar of the House and sworn in, amid great ap-plause, sharing with General James A. Walker, of Virginia, the tribute of a partisan majority for their joint partici-pation in a despicable outrage. The vote was a strict party one-several Republicans, to their credit be it said, declining to vote. What a record for the ex-commander of the Stonewall Brigade! Representative Jones, of Virginia, made, it is said, the best presentation of the Democratic side in this case that has been made in the House this session, and to-day he has been warmly congratulated by members, including many Republi

LOCOMOTIVE-WORKS CLAIM. It is not likely now that the claim of Richmond Locomotive- and Machine Works for the $69,000 due as damages for delay in the construction of the battle-ship Texas will be allowed this session; but there is no possible sort of doubt about its payment early next session. It is admitted by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, and others, who opposed it yesterday in the House, after the matter was ex-plained to them, that the ciaim is a just one, and should be paid, but they say if it is allowed now, it will open the doors to seven other somewhat similar claims, and would keep Congress in session in-

Next session the original claim of $80,000 will be insisted upon, as it was a compromise with the company when it was reduced to $69,558.39, Senator Allison marking that it was better to take amount this session than wait for the Shoon this session than wait for the 880,000 the next session.

Mr. Trigg, president of the locomotive-works, is perfectly satisfied with the status of the claim, though, to be sure, he would prefer to have the money in hand. The works are in a thriving and prosperous condition, and have all they can do for a long time. Perfection the can do for a long time. Representative Ellett covered himself with glory and established himself as an able debater in presenting the case in the House. PERSONAL AND POSTAL
